IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION: READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES

 WARNING - Seizures

- Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.
- Parents should watch when their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child have any of the following symptoms:

Convulsions
Altered vision

Eye or muscle twitching
Involuntary movements

Loss of awareness
Disorientation

To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:

1. Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible.
2. Play video games on the smallest available television screen.
3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
4. Play in a well-lit room.
5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain

Playing video games can make your muscles, joints, skin or eyes hurt after a few hours. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as tendinitis, carpal tunnel syndrome, skin irritation or eyestrain:

- Avoid excessive play. It is recommended that parents monitor their children for appropriate play.
- Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- If your hands, wrists or arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
- If you continue to have sore hands, wrists or arms or eyes during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

WARNING - Battery Leakage

Leakage of battery acid can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Game Boy. If battery leakage occurs, thoroughly wash the affected skin and clothes. Keep battery acid away from your eyes and mouth. Leaking batteries may make popping sounds.

To avoid battery leakage:

- Do not mix used and new batteries (replace all batteries at the same time).
- Do not mix alkaline and carbon zinc batteries.
- Do not mix different brands of batteries.
- Do not use nickel cadmium batteries.
- Do not leave used batteries in the Game Boy. When the batteries are losing their charge, the power light may become dim, the game sounds may become weak, or the display screen may be blank. When this happens, promptly replace all used batteries with new batteries.
- Do not leave batteries in the Game Boy or accessory for long periods of non-use.
- Do not leave the power switch on after the batteries have lost their charge. When you finish using the Game Boy, always slide the power switch OFF.
- Do not recharge the batteries.
- Do not put the batteries in backwards. Make sure that the positive (+) and negative (-) ends are facing in the correct directions. Insert the negative end first. When removing batteries, remove the positive end first.
- Do not dispose of batteries in a fire.

The Story

It is a dark time for kids worldwide! With the recent passing of the Soda Control Act, the drinking age of soda has been raised to 13 years and older! The Kids Next Door have refused to recognize this dastardly attempt at prohibiting children from drinking their favorite beverage, and have taken it upon themselves to run a secret operation...

Displays

Keep track of your health, number of tries and the number of bottle caps you've collected with the following displays on your screen.

"Tries" Indicator

Keep track of how many "tries" you have left by looking at the number next to the picture of your KND operative. You start with three, and can gain extras by collecting special pickups.

Health / Damage Meter

You can tell what your current health condition is by the number of light bulbs on your meter. When all your lights go out, you'll need to try again!

Bottle Cap Indicator

Keep track of all the valuable bottle caps you've collected here.

Pickups and Collectibles

Candies help make kids healthy, at least in this game!
Each candy restores a different amount of health.

Candy	Health points returned
	Bubblegum
	Lollipop
	Chocolate bar
	Sooper Sour Candy	Temporary Invincibility

Pickups and Collectibles

Bottle Caps

Be sure to collect as many bottle caps as you can. If you collect 50 of them, you'll get an extra "try"!

If you get every bottle cap in the game, you will get a sooper special surprise!

Extra "Try" Pickups

Keep an eye out for very special pickups. The one's that look like your KND operative will give you an extra try.

2x4 "Junk" Items

As you move through the locations you'll find cool things that someone has thrown away. The Kids Next Door are experts at converting this "junk" into their powerful 2x4 Technology, so don't be surprised if the next place you see one of these items is attached to your weapon, as its latest upgrade!

Rainbow Monkeys are your friends!
There are three different Rainbow Monkeys in the game, each a different color based on what they do:

Purple Monkey (password): After you successfully complete a section, your password will be updated. The purple Rainbow Monkey will tell you your new password when you enter the next section.

Pink Monkey (checkpoint): Pink Rainbow Monkeys are placed in the middle of level sections and serve as checkpoints. Walk over them to save your current position. If you are defeated, you will restart from the point where you passed the pink Rainbow Monkey, instead of all the way at the beginning.

Blue Monkey (ranking): When you near the end of a section or a mission, the blue monkey will tell you ranking, based on how many bottle caps you have collected. A bronze trophy means you have collected some bottle caps, a silver indicates you found most of the bottlecaps, and a gold trophy means you collected them all! You can then decide to turn back to collect more by hitting Pause and then Retry, or just continue onward!

Enemies and Hazards

The Kids Next Door are always on an exciting new mission. Between bubbling molten soda pits, barbed wire, soda-seeking 'bots and battalions of soda-shooting Soda Control Board henchmen, you will have to punch, fight, shoot, jump and blast your way to victory! Just keep an eye on your Health Meter while you do!

Numbuh One

Nigel Uno, a.k.a. "Numbuh One", is the leader of the Kids Next Door and the embodiment of its principles. He is a master tactician who devises elaborate plans for world domination. Although usually super confident and in control during a crisis, Numbuh One still suffers occasional breakdowns due to the other Kids' ineptitude. Also, he speaks with a cool accent.

Numbuh Four
