Liquid Books 4— The Adventures of Adelita and Bo

Three storytellers—Alyce, Harlynnne, and Michael—each take a turn telling his or her own version of the adventures of Adelita and Bo. (The pictures above each storyteller on the selection screen indicate how much exaggeration his or her story involves. The taller Adelita is in the picture, the taller and more exaggerated the tale.) Have your child:

- click Alyce, Harlynnne, or Michael to hear a story
- click Stop in the lower-left portion of the screen to leave a story at any time
- click Pause in the lower-left portion of the screen to temporarily pause a story
- click Play in the lower-left portion of the screen to resume a story that has been paused

Encourage your child to pause a story at any time to discuss with you what is happening in the story and where exaggeration may have entered into the tale.

Alyce

In Alyce's tale, Adelita and Bo start their adventure in Baja, California, where Adelita swims with a dolphin. Then, they take a stagecoach to Idaho to eat potatoes, and finally, the two catch a train to Vermont where they rest in a pile of leaves.

Harlynnne

Harlynnne's tale begins in a swamp in Florida where Adelita wrestles an alligator. Next, Adelita and Bo take a mud bath in Michigan and make a mattress out of cotton picked in a field in Tennessee.

Pause the story to look at a map of North America and help your child find the various states that Adelita and Bo are visiting.

Michael

Michael's tale begins with Adelita and Bo having a snowball fight and sledding in Canada. Then, they create farmland from North Dakota to Kansas, make apple juice in Washington, and use lava from the center of the earth to heat a cup of hot cocoa.

Discuss with your child which story he or she liked best and why.

Extending the Learning Experience

Family Activities

More Tall Tales

With your child, check out some library books with tall tales. Encourage your child to explore the books by him- or herself and to select one of the tall tales to read aloud with you for a bedtime story.

Traveling across the States

Adelita and Bo have adventures that cover many states. Discuss with your child the various states that you have visited or would like to visit together and what features you might see (for example, the Grand Canyon or the Rocky Mountains) that could inspire tall tales.

Understanding Exaggeration

With your child, look up "exaggerate" in the dictionary. Ask your child to recall a time when someone exaggerated an incident or event. Discuss the difference between exaggeration and lying.

Bear Stories

Adelita's friend and companion, Bo, is a bear. With your child, talk about bears that you have seen in real life, in movies, or on television. Ask your child to relate how bears are depicted in the stories that he or she knows. Together, check out a library book about bears and read it aloud to one another.

Best Buddies

Adelita's best friend is her bear buddy, Bo. Discuss with your child what qualities make someone a good friend.
